

Project Learning Tree, Project WET, Project Wild Teacher Workshop

Newly revised, time-tested environmental education programs for classroom and outdoor learning

New Date: April 20, 2013

Padilla Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve

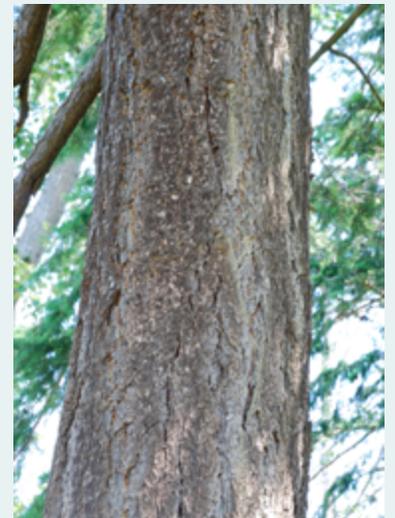

9:00AM to 3:00PM

- * Learn how to teach the wonders of water, wildlife, and forests in science, math, language arts and social studies.
- * Hands-on training for K-12 teachers featuring activities and lessons for indoors and out.
- * All lessons are aligned with national learning standards.
- * Teachers will receive 4 lesson-packed books for K-12.
- * 6 free Clock Hour credits

For information, contact Susan Wood at 360-428-1066 or swood@padillabay.gov.

To apply, email Susan Wood and mail in registration form on back. Deadline: April 5, 2013.

For directions: [http://www.padillabay.gov/
aboutlocationhours.asp](http://www.padillabay.gov/aboutlocationhours.asp)

Project WILD

Padilla Bay Project Learning Tree, WET and Wild Workshop Registration

Name: _____

School: _____

District: _____

Grade level(s): _____

Home address: _____

Phone Work: _____ Home: _____

Email: _____

Please mail $70 with this registration form before April 5 to:

Dept of Ecology
Cashiering Unit
PO Box 47611
Olympia, WA 98504-7611

001-Workshop-EC13-80-04-99-000220